

Urban Arts Academy

Urban Arts Academy's mission is to bring neighborhood people from diverse cultures together by providing creative experiences in the arts with children and families in order to develop the gifts of self-expression and community. The overall goal of this non-profit organization is to increase social supports and developmental assets for neighborhood children, families and communities, and to build community support systems through the arts.

The geographic area Urban Arts Academy serves is South Minneapolis.

Urban Arts Academy offers a number of programs and is looking for volunteers to help with after school programs, summer arts camp, family arts, community arts, performance arts, and pre-school arts.
